CLOTHES AND OUTFITS

1

Plan a comfortable outfit, suitable for a stay in the forest and the weather. Take your sneakers with you: in the Parcabout® closed and flat shoes are mandatory! Skirts, dresses and any clothing that does not protect the skin from the friction of the net are strongly discouraged.

BED LINEN AND TOWELS

2

Bring your towels for stays in yurts (Tweed and Clyde), tree house cabins (Ben Nevis, Ben Lomond and Tinto) or nid'île tree domes (Iona and Skye). Do you have a wellness option? Plan swimsuits and towels for all participants. The beds are made before your arrival, you do not need to bring sheets. To give you the choice, all the beds of your ecolodge will be made, please use only the beds according to the number of occupants.

THE CUTLERY

3

You can add to your stay "local food at the ecolodge" in extra : gourmet diner, bistronomic hamper and aperitif hamper for the evening. Snack and fast food restauration are available for lunch at the bar-café-boutique of the estate. The necessary cutlery is provided with our options. If you want to eat on your own, remember to bring your dishes (glasses, cutlery, plates, corkscrew...).

Some of our unusual accommodations are equipped with a microwave and a mini-fridge, you can consult the equipment of your accommodation directly on our website.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES

4

In yurts, tree houses and perched huts, electrical outlets are available to charge your phones. Electrical appliances over 1400Watt (6A to 230V) (ex: plancha, raclette and other household appliances) are strictly prohibited.
